

PAID INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT
Juvenile Expungement Help Desk (JEHD) Law Student Intern

For over 50 years, Legal Aid Chicago has provided free civil legal assistance to people living in poverty in metropolitan Chicago. Each year our attorneys, volunteers, and staff help resolve legal problems, including domestic violence, consumer fraud, and unfair evictions.

At the Juvenile Expungement Help Desk (“JEHD”), Legal Aid Chicago helps individuals access their juvenile court records, evaluate their eligibility to expunge these records, and complete the juvenile expungement petitions and other paperwork. For some clients, Legal Aid Chicago also represents them at expungement hearings. Legal Aid Chicago seeks law student interns to staff the JEHD and help incoming clients with the paperwork. Additionally, a law student intern with a 711 license to practice law in Illinois may also represent the clients at their follow-up juvenile expungement court hearings.

- Researching JEHD clients’ eligibility to expunge their juvenile records;
- Preparing juvenile expungement petitions and related paperwork for eligible JEHD clients;
- Representing the clients in juvenile expungement court hearings, if the student has a license to practice under Illinois Supreme Court Rule 711; and
- Assisting with Legal Aid Chicago’s other juvenile expungement projects, such community clinics to help eligible students and other persons prepare and file juvenile expungement paperwork and drafting memoranda on topics related to juvenile expungement.

Qualifications:

- Be a current law student at an accredited law school.
- Be available to travel to the JEHD, located at the Juvenile Court, 1100 S. Hamilton St. in Chicago.
- Experience in public interest law and/or juvenile or adult criminal records relief is preferred.
